Notes on farms and owners in Toronto Twp. East,

Anthony Black, lot 10, Con 4. got his farm in 1869. This farm was clay soil as was this entire section around Mt. Charles. I think Mr. Black was Irish. They went to the Methodist church.

Children: Henry Black, never married, died young.

Thomas Black, who had three sons, Herbert, Clarence and Harold.

William Black, and a fourth, whose name I have forgotten. - John or Robert?

The farm went to the sons, Henry and Thomas, and then to Herbert Black. There was also a daughter, Emily, who died young.

Information concerning this family may be obtained from Sarah Black, living on Elizabeth St. in Brampton.

I think the house on the Black farm was a log cabin, boarded over. The rest of the farm buildings were just the ordinary kind. Originally the house on this farm was right on the Mt. Charles corner, but the buildings are now down in the center of the lot, facing the 3rd line.

also has a daughter Sarah Jane
